"Chums"

Two-Reel Century Comedy

Starring Brownie and Baby Peggy

AS Baby Peggy reads her Wild West book she sees herself as the sheriff roping a bad man of the plains. Brownie is lazily rocking the wooden horse upon which Baby Peggy is seated.

The landlord threatens to dispossess Peggy's mother unless she can pay her rent within the week. Downhearted, the mother goes out to sell papers. Brownie and Baby Peggy leave home to see if they cannot save the old home. After many adventures that take in camping and "jumping" freights, they arrive at a motion picture city. There, upon gaining admittance, they come upon a director who cannot get a dog to do a certain stunt. Baby Peggy thereupon tells the director her dog can do the stunt, and sure enough, Brownie does.

Brownie and Baby Peggy land a big contract and go back home to save mother and the old homestead.
